ABOUT THE EXHIBITION

Discover the remarkable journey of four Singapore artists—Liu Kang, Chen Chong Swee, Chen Wen Hsi, and Cheong Soo Pieng—who travelled to Bali and Java in 1952 in search of new artistic perspectives.

Untold Stories brings to life the seven-week adventure that culminated in their iconic 1953 exhibition and left an enduring legacy in Singapore’s art history. See how they captured the essence of local life in works that continue to inspire today.

This exhibition includes mature content. Visitor discretion is advised.

EXHIBITION HIGHLIGHTS

Chapter 1
Imagining Bali

In the early 20th century, Bali’s image as a paradise was shaped by colonial promotion and the rise of pleasure travel. Artists, photographers, writers and scholars further popularised this image. Explore Bali’s romanticised image in historic footage, early publications, and art.

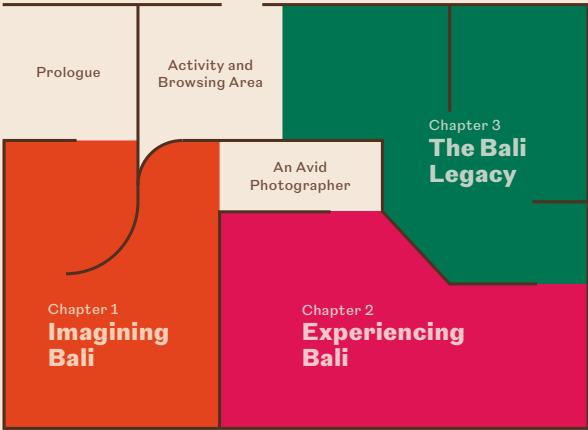

Island of Bali, first published in 1937, remains a definitive text on Bali for non-natives. It contains extensive details and is illustrated with Covarrubias’ art and photos by his wife, Rosa.

Tourism in the Dutch East Indies grew with the creation of the Tourist Traffic Association and the rise of pleasure travel. The colonial government promoted Bali to Western travellers, highlighting its landscapes, culture, and people.

Chapter 2
Experiencing Bali

The artists’ journey through Bali and Java was marked by serendipity and kindness from strangers and friends. Liu Kang captured more than 1,000 photographs during this iconic trip. Immerse yourself in an interactive projection of over 300 photos and experience the journey through the artist’s lens.

The artists observed everyday life in Bali and Java, which later inspired their artworks.

Chapter 3
The Bali Legacy

In 1953, the four artists held a joint exhibition, featuring works developed from their travel sketches in Bali and Java. This landmark event in Singapore’s art history later inspired similar ventures by other artists. Discover the artworks born from their 1952 quest for inspiration.
